

1. The earliest prophecy of the Lord's return with His saints was given by the ancient prophet Enoch. It was inscribed in the Bible by the New Testament writer Jude.
2. According to Zechariah 14:4 and Acts 1:11, 12, Jesus will return from heaven to this geographic location at the end of the Tribulation. Mount of Olives.
3. The final place of torment for unsaved, evil people is the lake of fire. Today those unfortunate souls are in hell, waiting for the final pronouncement of their doom.
4. The judgment of the unsaved occurs at the Great White Throne Judgment.
5. Finally, a new heaven and a new earth are created, according to Revelation 21:1. God, in essence, has His own "recycling plan."

TRUE or FALSE

6. False Our glorified bodies will be flesh and blood bodies.
7. True During the Great Tribulation the Book of Revelation calls Jerusalem "Sodom and Egypt" (Revelation 11:8).
8. False The blood on Jesus' garments in Isaiah 63:3 and Revelation 19:13 is His own blood.
9. False The Church will win the whole world to Jesus before He returns.
10. True Being sent to the lake of fire is called the "second death".